

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

CRIPPLE ENDS LIFE WITH LAUDANUM

Body of Horace V. Frist Found in Cottage, Near Buck-roe, Sunday Afternoon.

DEAD PROBABLY FOR TWO WEEKS

Although He Served in the Union Army His Remains Were Buried in a Pine Coffin in the Potters' Field, Because Authorities Wouldn't Open a Grave.

Driven to desperation by poverty and illness, Horace V. Frist, who served in the Union army, committed suicide in a cottage near the site of the Josiah Hampton hospital.

The body of the veteran was found in the cottage Sunday afternoon by Mr. Benjamin Burge, who went out to the place to look at the cottage with a view to leasing it. It was a ghastly sight that confronted Mr. Burge. Lying on the floor in a badly decomposed condition was the body of Frist.

Dead Two Weeks.
Mr. Burge informed the authorities of his discovery and Dr. George Vanderlice, the coroner, was notified. Dr. Vanderlice, after examining the body, said that Frist must have been dead fully two weeks and that death was due to suicide. On the floor near the dead man were two empty vials that had contained laudanum, and an examination showed the medicine that Frist had taken the deadly drug.

Buried in Potters Field

Although Frist served with distinction for two years in the Union army with one of the Maryland cavalry companies, his body was laid out in an unshelved pine box out in the county potters' field. When the coroner turned the remains over to Charles R. C. Hall & Son, that firm informed the authorities of the National Soldiers' Home of the discovery and asked that a permit be issued to have the remains interred in the national cemetery. Frist had been an honorable member of the home, but as he did not have a pension, he took an honorable discharge from the institution. The authorities were willing to allow the body to rest in the national cemetery, but the cemetery authorities would not open a grave for the remains of the body. As it cost $2 to have the grave dug, the local under-takers decided that the remains would be interred in the potters' field in one of the cheap coffins supplied to the paupers by the county. The burial was made yesterday morning.

Was a Watchmaker.

Frist was quite well known around Hampton and Phoebus. He was a watchmaker and followed watchmaking as a trade. He was an expert at his business, but his deformity kept him from working steadily. Frist was 60 years old.

Hold Revival in Phoebus.

Rev. Alexander Mac George, of New York, is expected to arrive in Phoebus this morning to assist his son, W. C. MacGeorge, in a series of revival services at the Phoebus Baptist church.
